

Edinets, Moldova

Currently, the corps meeting space is a rented basement without bathroom facilities. This project would allow for the corps to have their own building and more easily carry out the mission of The Salvation Army. Corps members have been praying for 20 years to have a space of their own.

Edinets, Moldova

Currently, the corps meeting space is a rented basement without bathroom facilities. This project would allow for the corps to have their own building and more easily carry out the mission of The Salvation Army. Corps members have been praying for 20 years to have a space of their own.

Edinets, Moldova

Currently, the corps meeting space is a rented basement without bathroom facilities. This project would allow for the corps to have their own building and more easily carry out the mission of The Salvation Army. Corps members have been praying for 20 years to have a space of their own.

Edinets, Moldova

Currently, the corps meeting space is a rented basement without bathroom facilities. This project would allow for the corps to have their own building and more easily carry out the mission of The Salvation Army. Corps members have been praying for 20 years to have a space of their own.